Rationale

I have chosen to build my wire frame with simple pictures and text. This makes it easy to see the information without distracting the reader. I also made it more text heavy because employers will be looking for text, not pictures.

I made long narrow pictures/links to download my portfolio piece because it is a good way of displaying it all without having to scroll through a bunch of pages.